DETAILED ACTION

Specification

The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because the abstract should be on a separate page by itself. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "flexibly resilient metal strip" as recited in claim 13 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 13-16 and 18-20 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Chang (US Patent No. 6,776,503).

Chang discloses a comprising housing (21) flexibly resilient metal strip (since any thing is flexible to some extent element 322 is considered as meeting the claimed feature), and an actuator (31). The reference also discloses a whistle (40). Regarding the intended use recitation in the preamble, a recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim.

Claims 13-20 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Mobley (US Patent No. 3,029,554).

Mobley discloses a comprising housing (10) flexibly resilient metal strip (200), and an actuator (180). The reference also discloses a whistle (14). Regarding the intended use recitation in the preamble, a recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 13-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mugford (US Patent Application Publication No. 2004/0118361) in view of Chang (US Patent No. 6,776,503).

Mugford discloses the claimed limitations including an animal training device (see Figs. 1-6) comprising housing (2) flexibly resilient metal strip (18), and an actuator (5). The reference fails to disclose a whistle. However the use of a whistle element with other components is taught by the Chang device (see whistle element 40). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to add a whistle in the Mugford device as taught by Chang so that the device could have multiple functions.
